Co-op Parent Commitment

(All Parents)

Parents must agree to the following statements as a condition of participation in the Redeeming Grace Church (RGC) Co-op for 2022-2023 classes:

Parent Commitment

We bring together homeschooling families to support each other in their calling of teaching their children at home. Our goal is to provide a wholesome educational experience in small group settings, while working in a cooperative manner, with parents to fulfill many different roles within the co-op. We are here to support each other and help instill a lifetime love of learning in each other's children.

I read and agree to the following statements:

- I understand that as a Parent, Teacher, or Class Helper I should lead in the principles outlined in the Student Honor Code.
- I understand that the Co-op is not a drop off program and that one parent is required to serve each period that my child is in class. While your student is in class parents will be given other serving roles such as teachers helper, substitute, and others.
- I will make Co-op a priority in our schedule. Our group only functions when everyone is pitching in and sharing in the work as well as the fun. If you cannot commit to attending each week then this may not be the season for you.
- I will complete my assigned jobs weekly.
- Guard your tongue. Speak encouragement. Beware of gossip.
- Clean up after your family.
- Actively work with teachers and leadership if behavior problems arrive concerning your child in class and be supportive of disciplinary actions if needed. I understand that I am ultimately responsible for correcting my child's behavior before disciplinary action is taken.
- I will be proactive in monitoring my child's grades and holding them accountable for completing assignments.
- I have read and agree to the following documents:
 - Co-op Policy Manual
 - RGC Statement of Faith
 - Co-Op COVID Mitigation Plan
 - Cell Phone Policy
